RIGHTS OF DATA SUBJECTS

The natural persons concerned by the data processing have the following rights related to the data processing.

1. Right of access:

Data subjects have the right to obtain confirmation using the given contacts as to whether or not personal data concerning them are being processed and, where that is the case, access to the personal data and the following information:

- a) the purposes of the processing,
- b) the categories of personal data concerned,
- c) the recipients or categories of recipient to whom the personal data have been or will be disclosed,
- d) the envisaged period for which the personal data will be stored,
- e) the existence of the right to request from the controller rectification or erasure of personal data or restriction of processing of personal data concerning the data subject or to object to such processing,
- f) the right to lodge a complaint,
- g) the existence of automated decision-making, including profiling, and information about the logic involved, as well as the significance and the envisaged consequences of such processing for you.

Information shall be provided without undue delay, in one month from receiving your request. Primarily, Controllers provide information in the same form as the request is received.

Controllers provide information free for the first time in each calendar year. For requests filed repeatedly for the same scope of data, Controllers may charge administrative fees, provided that no infringement found and no rectification was necessary.

2. Rectification

In case personal data processed by the Controller is inaccurate, and accurate data is available or sent them, the Controller will rectify such personal data.

3. Erasure of personal data

Controller erase processed personal data if:

- a) it has been unlawfully processed;
- b) you withdraw your consent and there is no other legal ground for the processing;
- c) you object to the processing
- d) it is no longer necessary in relation to the purposes for which they were collected or otherwise processed;
- e) it has to be erased for compliance with a legal obligation.

4. Right to restriction

Restriction of the data processing shall take place in the following cases:

- a) if the data subject contests the accuracy of the personal data (for the period of verifying accuracy)
- b) if the processing is unlawful and the data subject do not request erasure,
- c) if the Controllers do not need the personal data for the purposes of the processing any more, but they are required by you for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims;
- d) if the data subject objects to processing (for the period of studying the objection assessing whether legitimate interests of the Controllers or the data subjects shall prevail)

In case of restriction of processing, the Controllers will not process the concerned personal data (except from storage). Controllers will send prior notification before lifting restrictions.

5. Objection

Data subjects may object to the process of your personal data, for the purpose of direct marketing. The data subject can communicate the objection by clicking on the link provided in the newsletter.

6. Lodging a complaint

In case the data subject believes that the data processing is detrimental, he/she may lodge a complaint with the Hungarian National Authority for Data Protection and Freedom of Information (Nemzeti Adatvédelmi és Információszabadság Hatóság)

7. Data portability

On request, Controllers will send the personal data concerning the data subjects, in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format.

8. Compensation for damages, restitution

If the Controllers cause the data subjects or others any damage by unlawful or unsafe processing of personal data, the person suffered damage is entitled to claim compensation for damages. In case the harm affects rights relating to personality, the affected person shall be entitled to claim for restitution. Controllers shall not bear liability if the damages are the result of an unavoidable cause beyond the course of processing or caused by the data subject's intentional or grossly negligent behavior

Exercising claims

1. Contacting the Controllers

If the data subjects believe that the Controllers do not act lawfully processing the personal data, they first should share their comment with the controllers first to deal with it the fastest and most effective way.

2. Hungarian National Authority for Data Protection and Freedom of Information (Nemzeti Adatvédelmi és Információszabadság Hatóság, NAIH)

In case of unlawful processing, data subjects may lodge a complaint with NAIH.
